CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

The Dine Bi Olta School Board Association, Inc. (DBOSBA) will be providing training opportunity for school board members and educational leaders.

DBOSBA is now accepting Presentation Proposals for the 2022 Calendar Year. We are inviting you to submit your presentation proposal to share your experience and knowledge of successful programs in your area, or topics of importance to Navajo Schools Boards, School Administrators/Staff, and Tribal Leaders. Our goal is to inform and prepare our participants, from experts or resources that would assist our school leaders, so they can run their schools effectively.

We are interested in all workshop topics that focus on increasing school performance, which includes, but not limited to:

- Best Practices in Academics/Organization
- Tribal Education Department
- Collaborations
- Financial Management
- Developing vision, mission, and goals (strategic planning)
- Parent/Community Engagement
- Creating a successful board and administrative relationships
- Improving Navajo culture for student achievement
- School improvement
- Using data to improve accountability
- Positive Media Relationships
- Local community resources/business collaborations
- Innovative Teaching Strategies
- Other Education related topics

Presentations will be scheduled in 60-minute to 90-minute blocks, which includes times for questions and answers. If virtual, we ask that presenters be available to use Zoom.
